

Standard Terms and Conditions of Delivery and Payment of the following associations of the Rauschert Group: Rauschert Oberbettingen GmbH, Paul Rauschert Steinbach GmbH

- here in after referred to as Rauschert -

I. Definition, scope

1. The following standard terms and conditions shall not apply vis a vis consumers.
2. The following standard terms and conditions shall apply exclusively; any conflicting or deviating terms and conditions of the orderer Rauschert will only accept if these are general terms of purchase that comply with the recommendations of the German Association of the Automotive Industry (Verband der deutschen Automobilindustrie, VDA) for General Terms and Conditions for the purchase of production material and spare parts which are destined for the automobile. The general terms mentioned before shall precede these conditions. Any other conditions of the orderer Rauschert only accepts if it has expressly agreed to their validity in writing. The following terms and conditions shall apply even if Rauschert makes the delivery to the orderer without reservation, in full awareness of conflicting or deviating terms and conditions of the orderer.
3. Any agreements or ancillary agreements deviating from these terms and conditions shall not be valid unless they are confirmed in writing by Rauschert.
4. These terms and conditions shall also apply to future contracts within the framework of ongoing business relationships.

II. Offers - offer documents, confirmation of orders

1. If the order is to be qualified as a bid within the framework of § 145 German Civil Code (BGB), Rauschert shall be entitled to accept it within 4 weeks.
2. Rauschert shall retain all property rights and copyrights for images, drawings, calculations and other documents. This shall also apply to written documents which are designated as "confidential". Any disclosure to third parties shall require the express written consent of Rauschert.
3. A delivery contract shall only be deemed to have been entered on a written confirmation of the order and no later than upon delivery. If Rauschert can prove through the submission of a transmission report that it forwarded a declaration by fax or data transmission, it shall be assumed that the orderer received said declaration.

III. Call orders

1. If call orders have been placed, the period for taking delivery shall be 12 months from the day of confirmation of the order unless any deviating written agreement has been entered into.
2. At the end of the term, the residual stocks may be delivered.
3. In the event of call orders without any agreement on terms, manufacturing lot sizes and/or delivery dates, Rauschert shall be entitled to request a binding scheme no later than three months after confirmation of the order.

IV. Prices - terms of payment

1. All prices quoted by Rauschert shall be deemed to be ex-works Rauschert plus value added tax applicable at the time of billing, without packaging, freight and transport insurance; the latter shall be billed separately.
2. Price alterations shall be admissible if more than four months lie between the conclusion of the contract and the delivery date agreed upon. If salaries and wages, material costs or market unit prices increase there after up to completion of the delivery, Rauschert shall be entitled to increase the price in a reasonable manner in line with cost increases. The orderer shall only be entitled to rescind the contract, if the price increase exceeds the increase in general costs of living between the order and the delivery dates in a considerable manner.

If the orderer is a merchant, a public law entity or a special federal fund, price changes shall be admissible under the aforementioned provisions if more than six weeks lie between the conclusion of the contract and the delivery date agreed upon.

3. Unless otherwise agreed upon
 - a) the proportional costs for tools and moulds as well as cash expenses and services shall be due for payment at the time of delivery of the service net without deduction. In the case of tools and moulds whose proportional value amounts to 2,500 EUR or more, an advance payment of 50% must be made upon confirmation of the order;
 - b) costs shall become due upon delivery and no later than on receipt of the invoice. With reservation as to the rejection of credit granting, invoices must be paid within 10 days with a 2% discount based on the value of the goods. The same discount shall also apply to deliveries against cash in advance or cash on delivery. No discount can be granted for invoice amounts up to 100 EUR in connection with deliveries outside Germany and in respect of bills for filler blocks. The granting of a discount shall presuppose that all bills due at an earlier date have been paid.
4. The day of receipt of payment shall be deemed for all means of payments to be the day on which Rauschert or third parties, who have a claim against Rauschert, may dispose of the amount. Payment by bill of exchange shall not be deemed to be a cash payment. Acceptance, also of so-called refinancing bills, shall be subject to special agreement. Cheques and rediscountable bills shall only be accepted on account of performance; all costs incurred shall be at the expense of the orderer.

5. In the event of default of payment by the orderer, Rauschert shall be entitled to retain all deliveries or services.

V. Retention of title

1. Rauschert shall retain title to the delivery items until receipt of all payments under the business relationship with the orderer.
2. The assertion of the retention of title and the pledging of the delivery items by Rauschert shall not be deemed to be a rescission of the contract unless expressly declared in writing by Rauschert.
3. The orderer shall be entitled to continue to sell the delivery items in the ordinary course of business; however, it shall already now assign all accounts receivable to Rauschert in the amount of the purchase price (including value added tax) agreed between Rauschert and the orderer which arise for the orderer as a result of reselling, regardless of whether the delivery items are sold on with or without processing. The orderer shall be entitled to collect these accounts receivable after their assignment. The right of Rauschert to collect the accounts receivable itself shall not be affected; Rauschert undertakes, however, not to collect the accounts receivable as long as the orderer meets its payment obligations and is not in default of payment. If the orderer is, however, in default of payment, Rauschert may require the orderer to disclose its assigned accounts receivable and their debtors, to make all information available which is necessary for collection, to submit the corresponding documents and to inform the debtors (third parties) about the assignment. 4. The processing or transformation of the goods by the orderer shall always be for Rauschert. If the delivery items are processed together with other items which do not belong to Rauschert, Rauschert shall acquire co-ownership of the new item in the proportion of the value of the delivery items to the other processed items at the time of processing.

5. If the delivery items are mixed in an inseparable manner with other items which do not belong to Rauschert, Rauschert shall acquire co-ownership of the new items in the proportion of the value of the delivery items to the other mixed items. The orderer shall hold the co-owned items in safe custody for Rauschert.

6. The orderer may neither pledge nor transfer the delivery items to assign it to third parties for collateral. In the event of attachment or seizure or other disposals by third parties, the orderer shall inform Rauschert without delay and provide it with all information and documents which are necessary for it to secure its rights. Enforcement officers and/or third parties must be informed of the property rights of Rauschert.

7. Rauschert undertakes to release the collaterals to which it is entitled when requested by the orderer in so far as the realisable value of the collaterals exceeds by more than 20% the accounts receivable to be secured. Rauschert shall select the collaterals to be released.

VI. Deliveries, delivery period, delivery quantities, default in delivery

1. Compliance with agreed dates of delivery and performance shall presuppose that all technical issues have been clarified and payments or other obligations of the orderer have been made and/or fulfilled in due time. If this is not the case, the period of time shall be extended in a reasonable manner. Delivery periods shall be interrupted by any changes in design and alterations of items requested by the customer. They shall resume as soon as the changes are released by the customer.
2. Rauschert shall deliver the contractual goods to the orderer in accordance with its delivery possibilities.
3. Partial deliveries shall be admissible provided that they do not result in any disadvantages in terms of use.
4. The delivery period shall be extended in the event of force majeure, strike, inability to perform without attributable negligence as well as unfavourable weather conditions for the period of hindrance.
5. A 10% increase or decrease in quantities shall be admissible. The minimum purchasing quantity shall be one full packaging unit.
6. If Rauschert defaults in delivery, the orderer shall have a claim to payment of flat-rate damages. The latter shall be laid down at 0.5% of the purchase price for each full week of default without, however, exceeding 5%.
7. If Rauschert defaults in respect of a partial delivery, these flat-rate damages shall be calculated on the basis of the purchase price for parts not yet accepted.
8. The assertion of any more extensive damage caused by delay in performance shall be excluded, unless such default is caused by Rauschert intentionally or by gross negligence or if the damage caused by default is the consequence of an essential contractual violation or if a default causes injury to life, body or health.

VII. Shipment - passing of risk

1. Unless otherwise laid down in the confirmation of order, delivery "ex works" shall be deemed to have been agreed. Shipment shall be at the risk and for the account of the orderer. This shall also apply to return shipments.
2. Packing material shall be selected with reasonably exercised discretion and invoiced at cost price. Container and wagon rents shall be borne by the recipient.
3. If Rauschert is obliged under the German Packaging Ordinance to take back the packaging used for transport and/or sale, the orderer shall bear the costs for the transport back and the reasonable costs of utilisation or, if this is possible and considered as purposeful by Rauschert, the reasonable costs which arise in addition for the reuse of the packaging. The orderer undertakes and confirms upon the placement of its order vis-à-vis Rauschert to direct any packaging, which is not sent back, to utilisations stipulated under the German Packaging Ordinance.

VIII. Property rights

1. The orderer undertakes to inform Rauschert immediately of property rights asserted by third parties concerning the supplied products and to let Rauschert assume legal defence at its expense. Rauschert shall be entitled to carry out the necessary alterations following property right assertions of third parties at its own expense, even for goods already supplied and paid.
2. If Rauschert is prohibited from producing or delivering by a third party invoking a property right belonging to it, Rauschert shall be entitled - without examination of the legal situation - to suspend its work pending the clarification of the legal situation by the orderer or the third party. If Rauschert cannot be reasonably expected to continue work in respect of the order because of the delay, Rauschert shall be entitled to rescission.
3. The orderer shall be liable to Rauschert for services of third parties being free of property rights of third parties and shall indemnify Rauschert against all corresponding claims of third parties.
4. Rauschert shall be entitled to the copyrights and possibly to the industrial property rights, particularly to all rights of use and exploitation for the models, moulds and devices, drafts and drawings.

IX. Liability in case of delay

1. Rauschert shall be liable for delay according to the statutory provisions as far as the relevant purchase contract is an agreement of the parties making time of the essence of the contract ("Fixgeschäft" = "short selling") as provided by section 286 paragraph 2 # 4 of the German Civil Code ("Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch", "BGB") or section 376 German Code of Commerce ("Handelsgesetzbuch", "HGB"). Rauschert shall also be liable according to the statutory provisions if the purchaser is entitled to claim that he is no longer interested in further fulfilment of the contract as a result of a delay for which Rauschert is responsible.
2. Rauschert shall be liable for delay according to the statutory provisions if the supplier makes claims for damages due to intention or gross negligence of Rauschert's agents or auxiliary persons. Should Rauschert not be accused of deliberate breach of contract, the liability for damages shall be limited to typically occurring, foreseeable damages.
3. Rauschert shall be liable for delay according to the statutory provisions if Rauschert culpably commits a fundamental breach of contract. As far as Rauschert in this case is not accused of deliberate breach of contract, the liability for damages shall be limited to typically occurring, foreseeable damages.
4. Claims for damages caused by delay regarding culpable infringements of human life, body or health shall remain unaffected.
5. As far as nothing different has been stipulated beforehand, all claims for damages caused by delay shall be excluded.

X. Liability for defects

1. In case of a product being specified, it is free from defects if approved tolerances for fabrication have been complied with. The purchaser can invoke an intended purpose of application only if it was explicitly agreed upon in writing.
2. Rauschert has to be informed immediately of evident defects. Should Rauschert be responsible for the defect, either rectification of defects or replacement delivery will be undertaken according to Rauschert's choice. In case of rectification of defects ("Beseitigung des Mangels" in the sense of section 439 paragraph 1, 1st alternative BGB), Rauschert is obliged to bear all necessary costs of supplementary performance, in particular costs of transport, travel, work and material, unless these costs are enhanced because the sold good has been brought to a place other than the place of performance. 3. If supplementary performance fails, the purchaser shall be at his discretion entitled to either rescind from contract or to claim reduction of the purchase price as provided by section 441 German Civil Code ("BGB").

4. Rauschert shall be liable according to the statutory provisions to the extent that Rauschert has willingly concealed a defect or accepted a guarantee for the constitution of the sold good.

5. Rauschert shall be liable according to the statutory provisions if the supplier makes claims for damages due to intention or gross negligence of Rauschert's agents or auxiliary persons. As long as Rauschert is not accused of deliberate breach of contract, the liability for damages shall be limited to typically occurring, foreseeable damages.

6. Rauschert shall be liable according to the statutory provisions if Rauschert culpably commits a fundamental breach of contract. As long as Rauschert in this case is not accused of deliberate breach of contract, the liability for damages shall be limited to typically occurring, foreseeable damages.

7. Claims for damages regarding culpable infringements of human life, body or health shall remain unaffected as well as the liability for the product liability law.

8. As far as nothing to the contrary has been stipulated beforehand, all claims for damages shall be excluded.

9. Claims according to section 437 German Civil Code („BGB“) shall be time-barred after the expiry of 12 months from passing of the risk unless goods are concerned which have been used according to their common way of application for construction and which have caused the defectiveness of the building.

10. The period of prescription in case of regress to the supplier as stipulated by sections 478 and 479 German Civil Code ("BGB") shall remain unaffected. This period shall be 5 years, beginning with delivery of the defective good.

XI. Total liability

1. For further claims for damages Rauschert shall be liable – regardless of the legal character of the asserted claim, in particular for default in conclusion of contract, other breaches of duty or tortious claims to compensation of damages according to section 823 German Civil Code ("BGB") – as stipulated above under X.5, 6 and 7. For all other claims liability shall be excluded.

2. As far as claims for damages against Rauschert are excluded or limited as a result of this article XI, these exemptions and limitations shall also apply as far as personal liability of Rauschert's employees, jobholders, personnel, agents and auxiliary persons is concerned.

3. All claims that are not subject to prescription in connection with a default of goods shall be time-barred after the expiry of 18 months. This period starts when the purchaser obtains knowledge of the damage and the person who caused it or with the time when the purchaser would have obtained knowledge of these circumstances without getting down to gross negligence.

XII. Construction, tools

1. The trouble free suitability of the construction and the material of the parts to be manufactured by Rauschert shall be determined by the tests and trials of the orderer. All proposals, construction drawings and other documents made available to the orderer by Rauschert shall remain the property of Rauschert and may not be disclosed to third parties without Rauschert's written consent. Rauschert shall have the sole right to use these construction drawings and any tools and/or equipment manufactured on their basis. The orderer shall be liable for the legality of the use of drawings, sketches, models etc. sent to Rauschert.

2. Models, moulds, dies, extrusion tools, installations and other operating equipment shall be invoiced separately. Proportional costs shall be due immediately upon invoicing net without deduction. They shall also include the non-recurring sampling costs, but not the costs for test and processing equipment nor the costs for any changes requested by the orderer. Maintenance costs shall be borne by Rauschert up to the agreed amount of application.

3. Any operating equipment shall remain the property of Rauschert even if a portion of the cost was invoiced.

4. If within a period of 3 years after the last use of a tool orders are no longer placed for it, Rauschert shall be entitled to destroy the corresponding operating equipment.

XIII. Counterclaims, transferability

1. The orderer shall only have offsetting rights if its counterclaims have been identified as legally valid and are uncontested or recognised by Rauschert. Moreover, the orderer shall be entitled to exercise a right of retention in so far as its counterclaim is based on the same contractual relationship.

2. The orderer shall not assign any rights under agreements entered into with Rauschert unless it has obtained the consent of Rauschert.

XIV. Spare parts

After expiry of the defects liability period Rauschert is only obliged to deliver spare parts if this has been agreed upon in writing between Rauschert and the purchaser.

XV. Force majeure events

1. "Events of force majeure" are circumstances that are beyond the control of Rauschert or its subcontractors, which could not have been prevented by applying the care customary in the industry and which lead to Rauschert not being able to fulfill its obligations or which are fully or can only provide partial fulfillment under this contract with a delay. Force majeure events include acts of war, riots, civil unrest, terrorism, natural disasters, epidemics, pandemics, strikes, exclusions, attacks on the Rauschert IT system (such as virus attacks, hacker attacks), non-issuance of licenses, permits or consents, or other acts or omissions by authorities or embargoes or other sanctions.

2. If a force majeure event occurs, Rauschert does not violate its contractual obligations as long as and to the extent that this is necessary to cope with the effects of the force majeure event. Rauschert will promptly notify the customer of the force majeure event and the obligations involved.

3. If an event of force majeure and its effects lasts more than 180 days, each party is entitled to withdraw from the contract by notifying the other party in writing. Partial services already provided remain unaffected by the withdrawal, unless the customer demonstrates that the partial services cannot be used.

4. Claims for damages by the customer against Rauschert are excluded if and to the extent that the damage incurred by the customer is caused by the delayed delivery or delivery that was not made in whole or in part due to the force majeure event.

XVI. Place of Performance, place of jurisdiction, applicable law, miscellaneous

1. Unless expressly otherwise agreed, the registered office of Rauschert shall be the place of performance.

2. If the orderer is a merchant, a public law entity or a special federal fund, the place of jurisdiction shall be the competent court at the place of business of Rauschert. Rauschert shall, however, be entitled to sue the orderer also at any other admissible court. 3. The present terms and conditions shall be exclusively governed by German law excluding the UN sales convention (CISG).

4. Should a provision of these terms and conditions or part of such a provision be or become invalid, the remaining provisions and/or the remaining part of the provision shall remain valid.

5. The contractual language shall be German. The German language shall take priority over any other language that may be used.
